Why Travel With Us?

Hi! I'm Katie Solove.

I founded Live, Run, Travel, as a travel agency focused on my true passion... active indulgence.

You can find me training for a marathon while eating my way through every carb in Europe.

We understand life is about balance, and that's exactly what you'll find on this trip to Israel.

Small Group - Even if you are traveling alone, you're in good company. This trip will have no more than 14 runners.

Unique Local Activities- Traveling for a race doesn't mean you have to deprive yourself. We have fun, experience the food and culture of the destination with local guides.

Just train & show up - We are a full service agency that can arrange everything from the moment you walk out your door.
